STATINTL MEMORANDUM FO[redacted] Chief, Administrative Staff, OCR

STATINTL FROM : [redacted] Executive Officer, DDA

SUBJECT : Bicentennial Brochure

1. Per your request, following is the general distribution of the Bicentennial Brochure:

a. Total printing to date: [redacted] STATINTL

STATINTL b. Abou[redacted] copies were distributed to Agency employees.

c. The DCI distributed several hundred to Members of Congress.

d. Certain Congressmen asked for copies for their constituents.

e. Members of the Intelligence Community.

f. Members of the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board.

g. Students of the Presidential Classroom.

h. Smithsonian Institution. (As I understand, the Historian of the Institution saw the brochure, was impressed, and asked for copies for their library or something.)

i. Virginia Society for the Sons of the American Revolution.

j. Director, Yorktown National Park.

k. Interestingly enough, the DDO continues to ask for copies to give to liaison services and foreign visitors.

2. As I mentioned, the DDA is in favor of some sort of recognition for the work that Ed has done on this brochure. The specific award, however, was not discussed.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Intelligence
Deputy Director for Operations
Deputy Director for Science & Technology
DCI Administrative Officer

FROM : John F. Blake
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT : Distribution of Agency Bicentennial Pamphlet, "Intelligence in the War of Independence"

Early next week, an Agency Bicentennial pamphlet entitled, "Intelligence in the War of Independence," will be distributed throughout the Agency. It is intended that a copy be made available to all employees. Although the pamphlet is unclassified, it is clearly Agency attributable and, therefore, cover implications should be considered in its distribution. In view of this, I would appreciate knowing by COB, Friday, 24 September, the number of copies that are required for your office.
